

Congratulations on your wedding! You are on your way to a beautiful wedding hairstyle. I hope you will find my information helpful and easy to follow whether you try to do the hairstyle yourself or you bring it to your stylist.

No one wants a bad hair day on their wedding! Communication is the key to success. My suggestion for you is to find a stylist who has experience “dressing” hair. Let the receptionist know this is your wedding and that you wish to schedule a trial run. This can be done as soon as possible, but no later than six weeks before your wedding.

Helpful tips for a great Trial Run:

- ◆ Bring a camera with you so you can take pictures of your hair.
- ◆ Bring your headpiece so the stylist can work with it.
- ◆ If possible schedule your trial run on the same day you have a gown fitting.
- ◆ Try to bring a magazine picture of your dress or a photo with you to the salon; any and all information is helpful to the stylist.

To help keep wedding day jitters under control a good attitude is key. Don't expect everyone to be happy with their hair appointments. It was hard enough choosing of the bridesmaid dresses. The flower girl may be tired and cranky. Someone may forget their picture. Another wants their hair down and you would prefer it up. Don't let these minor issues get you down.

Have everyone pick out a style from weddinghair.com for a GOOD hair day!

Hopefully the salon you use will have a copy of my book The Business of Bridal Beauty, an indispensable tool for understanding the wedding business and its relation to the beauty industry.

Start by taking out the front pieces for tendrils. Draw the top section back as shown and put in a ponytail.

Put the remaining hair as shown in a second ponytail. Pay attention to the angle when adding the elastic.

Put the top into hot rollers. Notice a few sections were curled using a curling iron. Curl the tendrils and curl the ends of the ponytail with a curling iron.

Hold out the ponytail and twist, begin to lift up to the head as you twist. Spread out the hair to make it look like a French twist. Bobby pin and let the curls hang loose.

Take hair from the hot roller ponytail and put knots into the hair. Bobby pin the knots around the ponytail area.

Metallic pinch clips were added after for color. Be creative!
